Dear Friends:

I am happy to extend my greetings to everyone gathered for The Third New York International Chinese Calligraphy Exhibition & Columbia University Calligraphy Symposium 2026.

This event, eelebrating the rich artistic tradition of Chinese calligraphy, offers a valuable opportunity for artists, scholars, educators, and community members to come together and share in this important cultural tradition. Your efforts to promote Chinese calligraphy and foster greater cultural and academic exchange are greatly appreciated. Preserving and sharing the diverse cultural heritage is essential to the strength and vitality of our communities.

Through this event, you are making a meaningful contribution to cultural understanding and international exchange. I appreciate your commitment to bringing artists and scholars together and creating opportunities for audiences to experience the beauty and enduring significance of Chinese calligraphy.

Please accept my best wishes for a successful event!

Sincerely,

Grace Meng
Member of Congress
